ALL ABOUT ARCHAEOLOGY!

Hi, I'm INDIANA JONES!
YOU KNOW, I'M NOT ONLY A WORLD-FAMOUS
ADVENTURER - I'M ALSO AN ARCHAEOLOGIST!
WANT TO FIND OUT MORE ABOUT WHAT I DO? KEEP READING!

What's Archaeology?

Archaeology (pronounced ARI-kee-OLL-o-jee) means "ancient knowledge." People who study it are called "archaeologists."

What Do

Archaeologists Do?

Archaeologists study the past. They hunt for long lost artefacts, ancient cities, and other signs of how people lived centuries ago!

Do Archaeologists Find Treasure?

Yes! Archaeologists often find ancient and priceless artefacts. But they don't keep them for themselves - they put them in museums so everyone can get to see them and learn from them!

How Do Archaeologists Know Where to Look?

They study history, myths and legends, and then survey areas by foot or from the air. When they find the right spot, it's time to break out the shovels and start digging!

What's Like Most Exciting Part About Archaeology?

An archaeologist is like a detective, a scientist, and an explorer all rolled into one, solving some of the greatest mysteries of history! ■

ANCIENT EGYPT

Today's adventures also take them to the ancient city of Thebes in Egypt. Thebes was built about 1300 years ago. It was the northern capital of Egypt for some time, but was eventually abandoned by the 6th century A.D. when it was threatened by flooding from the nearby Lake Mareotis.

THE GOLDEN IDOL

At the beginning of the Adventures of the Last of the Indiana Jones explores a rocky, hilly landscape to find the long-lost golden idol of the Incas. The Incas were made up for the movie, but they were based on a real South American tribe called the Chachapoyas. Known as the Warriors of the Clouds, they lived in the Andes Mountain region of Peru. One of their most famous structures is the Fortress of Kuelap, made of more than 400 buildings surrounded by high stone walls.

The legendary Toa Nuva return to Karda Nui, the core of the universe, for the ultimate battle! Teaming up with Matoran of Light, they use their Midak Skyblasters that shoot spheres of white light to fight the Forces of shadow!

But the Brotherhood of Makuta is waiting for them, using Tridax pods filled with shadow leeches to corrupt their enemies.

THE FINAL BATTLE IS ABOUT TO BEGIN!

8893 CHIROX AND 8949 KIROP

One of the Brotherhood's top scientists, Chirox is known for creating monstrous Rahi. His Kanohi Shiek, the Mask of Silence, temporarily robs enemies of the ability to speak or hear. Kirop's power to temporarily rob a foe of his sight makes them a lethal combination in a fight.

8891 ANTROZ AND 8947 NADIAX

The leader of the Makuta in Karda Nui, Antroz is an aggressive warrior. His Kanohi Jutis, the Mask of Corruption, causes items to rot and break down. Nadiax flies with him, using his special power to slow the actions of the Toa and make them easy targets.

The Toa Nuva of Air relies on his high-tech jet pack to fly and his Mask of Levitation to help him do complex air maneuvers. Tanma acts as a living source of light energy for Lewa's Skyblaster.

8685 KOPAKA NUVA AND 8945 SOLEK

The Toa Nuva of Ice would rather fight alone, relying on his Mask of X-Ray Vision and Ice Bayonet. But Solek's power to create objects of solid light may provide the edge that wins a battle!

RISE OF THE MAKUTA!

The Brotherhood of Makuta has launched their most daring plan yet – seizing control of Karda Nui, the core of the universe, and capturing and corrupting the Matoran of Light who live there. The Toa Nuva and their Matoran allies are out to stop them – but who are these Makuta? What can they do? Read on to find the answers... if you dare.

Who are the Makuta?

The Makuta are members of a unique species of shapeshifters in the BIONICLE universe. Although they wear armour, they no longer have physical bodies. Instead, they are just clouds of energy. By changing the shape of their armour, they can change how they look and so trick others. Originally, the Brotherhood of Makuta was a group of brilliant creators whose role was to bring Rahi beasts – animals, birds, fish, insects, etc. – into being. By adding

"They change how they look and so trick others."

Why did the Makuta turn evil?

For a long time, the Matoran felt that they should be surviving the universe, not the Great Spirit Mata Nui. After all, they were stronger and more powerful than anyone else, so the rest of the beings in the universe should exist to serve them. Then the Makuta assigned to them Nui came up with an incredible plan to overthrow Mata Nui and seize power. Most of the rest of the Brotherhood agreed to follow his plan — those who didn't just were fatal "accidents."

Using a special seed he had created, the Makuta of Metru Nui transformed Mata Nui and put him into an unconscious slings with him out of the way. The Brotherhood then taking over large portions of the universe, enslaving Matoran, and eliminating anyone who opposed them, including Toa.

Viruses to vats of protodermis they could control what kind of Rahi would be created and what it could do. Some were helpful to Matoran, like Ussal crabs. Others were nasty and frightening, intended to keep Matoran away from places that might be dangerous for them. Virtually every Rahi that exists in the universe was created by the Makuta. Later, the Makuta started helping to protect the Matoran in other ways. Each region was assigned a Makuta to watch over it. They did things like crushing the Barraki rebellion and helping to stop the Matoran Civil War in Metru Nui.

Why are the Makuta teamed up with Matoran?

Makuta Vamprah, Chirox, and Antroz were caught out in the open when the Mask of Life was used to bring Mata Nui back from the dead. As a result of the explosion of light and energy, they were blinded. The shadow Matoran act as their "eyes" in combat.

Do Makuta have any weaknesses?

Yes. They are vulnerable to light, for one thing. Also, if their armour gets damaged badly enough, their energy will leak out. Without a new body to occupy, that energy will dissipate within weeks and the Makuta will die.

"Others were nasty and frightening, intended to keep Matoran away..."
